5 Portfolio updates

None raised

6 Convenor Callout

Harriet and Maja asked the Executive to encourage organised people to apply for winter convening. They also mentioned that they were looking for applicants for the National Womens Committee and multilateral client interviewing.

7 Voting Sheet

Ben H reminded the Executive that there are outstanding votes and encouraged them to read the relevant proposals and vote ASAP.

8 Retreat

Ben H asked the executive to confirm their availabilities for retreat dates.

9 Calendar

Ben H noted that it is very important to put events in the SULLS calendar. He pointed out that last week there were a lot of events which were planned in advance which conflicted with newer events.

10 Communication

Ben H reminded the Executive to respond to each other within 24-48 hours for SULLS matters.

11 Office Tomorrow

Ben H noted that the strike is on tomorrow and that as such, the SULLS office will be closed.

12 Stuvac (no office) + Reviews in the Holidays

Eden noted that there will be no Executive meeting next week or during the holidays and asked everyone to keep their eye out for communications about Executive work during winter. He noted particularly that the Executive will be undertaking several reviews as per the recent motions amended at the AGM and asked the Executive for their help with this process. Eden also noted that there was going to be a Stuvac edition of the weekly and a winter break one too.

13 A general reminder on accessibility

Grace Wa. reminded the Executive to give feedback on her accessibility guidelines and emphasised the importance of the Executive being proactive about disability accessibility and broader accessibility in all of their events. She noted there are a lot of disabled people at the Law School and that it is important we consider how accessible our events are at all stages.

14 PASS Co-Design (BH)

Ben H discussed the discontinuation of PASS and mentioned that the Law School approached us for input on what the new program would look like. He suggested that with the help of Irene we should consider what the new program ought to look like and put out consultative opportunities to the student body.

15 Other Business

Julia made a point about the internal marketing/design procedure.

Vivienne discussed the Semester One Informal. Building on last week's discussion, she noted that Archie Brothers would cost $45 per person for bowling for an hour, with food included. She asked if this cost was prohibitive. She suggested an alternative is bowling for $22 per person or the Arcade. The Executive generally agreed that this was too expensive and there was a discussion about alternative events. Onor suggested a moonlight cinema and Naz agreed that the moonlight cinema idea was a good from a cultural sensitivity perspective.
